TITLE IX SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

NON-DISCRIMINATION ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

WHAT IS TITLE IX?

Title IX is a federal law that prohibits gender and sex-based discrimination including sexual harassment/violence, and pregnancy related discrimination.

REPORTING TITLE IX ISSUES

Any administrator, supervisor, faculty member, instructor, graduate TA, residential advisor, or other University community member in a position of authority must report any knowledge or complaints of alleged sex-based discrimination to the EOO and relay any request for confidentiality by the complainant.

Reports can be made online here:

<https://eoo.uga.edu/Forms/ndah-complaint-form/>

WHAT TO DO IF SEXUALLY ASSAULTED

For more information on preventing and responding to Sexual assault please visit:

WHAT IS THE NDAH POLICY?

The NDAH Policy prohibits discrimination and harassment against any member of the UGA community based on protected categories:

- * Race
- * Sex (Including sexual harassment and pregnancy)
- * Gender Identity
- * Sexual Orientation
- * Ethnicity or National Origin
- * Religion
- * Age
- * Genetic Information
- * Disability Status
- * Veteran Status

REPORTING NDAH ISSUES

Any administrator, supervisor, faculty member, instructor, graduate TA, residential advisor, or other University community member in a position of authority must report any knowledge or complaints of alleged discrimination or harassment involving a protected category to the EOO.

Reports can be made online here:

<https://eoo.uga.edu/Forms/ndah-complaint-form/>

WHAT IS THE ADA?

The ADA provides that no qualified individual with a disability shall, on the basis of the disability, be excluded from participation in or be denied the benefits of the services, programs, or activities of a public entity, or be subjected to discrimination by any public entity. The UGA ADA Coordinator is in the EOO.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is available to assist students who know or suspect they may have a disability to help facilitate accommodations.

SERVICE ANIMALS

Federal law defines “service animal” as “any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual or other mental disability.”
